JOB DESCRIPTION

Maintenance Supervisors (Power Cables) perform work of varying degrees of difficulty involving the maintenance and repair of power feeder cable systems in the Power Cable Subdivision of the Maintenance of Way Electrical Division. At assignment Level I, under general supervision, they supervise personnel in the installation, maintenance, testing, alteration and repair of power feeder cable systems and communication cables; ensure compliance with proper safety procedures, including those involving the handling of asbestos/lead-containing materials, confined space entry and the removal of waste matter from manholes and cableways in order to access the cables; read and analyze blueprints and make required corrections; write reports; keep records; prepare personnel evaluations; handle emergencies; work with outside contractors and other MTA New York City Transit departments; operate motor vehicles, and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Maintenance Supervisors (Power Cables) and environmental conditions experienced are: working outside in all weather conditions; climbing on and off tracks through manholes; stepping over rails and clearing of tracks when trains approach; working in dimly lit areas; working in confined spaces; differentiating signals of different colors and color-coded electrical wires; communicating with co-workers and hearing the sound of approaching trains; and carrying heavy tools and equipment.

Special Working Conditions: Maintenance Supervisors (Power Cables) may be required to work various shifts, including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY

The current minimum salary for Maintenance Supervisors (Power Cables) is $79,058 per annum. This rate is subject to change. There are two assignment levels within this class of positions.

SALARY (Continued)

Promotions will be made to Assignment Level I. After promotion, employees may be assigned to the higher assignment level at the discretion of MTA New York City Transit.

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION

This examination is open to each employee of MTA New York City Transit who on the first date of the multiple-choice test:

1. Is permanently (not provisionally) employed in or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the eligible title of Power Cable Maintainer; and
2. Is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's Human Resources representative. You may be given the multiple-choice test before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

This examination is not open to employees of MaBSTOA or MTA Bus Company, or to employees of MTA agencies other than MTA New York City Transit.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED

Probationary Period: At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility to Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in that title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for the title at the time of promotion. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title for at least one year. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Driver License Requirement: At the time of promotion, you must have a Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York with no disqualifying restrictions that would preclude the performance of the duties of this title. If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record you may be disqualified. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title.

Safety Certification and Training: You must successfully complete a training program and obtain a New York State Department of Labor Asbestos Handling Supervisor certificate as soon as possible after appointment, after attending a one-week class and passing a certification test. Additionally, you may be required to satisfactorily complete required safety classes in accordance with New York City Transit Safety policies. If you fail to obtain required certifications or satisfactorily complete required safety classes, you may be returned to your previous title. Required certifications must be maintained for the duration of employment.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Maintenance Supervisor (Power Cables). Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position of Maintenance Supervisor (Power Cables). Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the examination and/or perform the essential function of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted, and if promoted, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Return to Duty process required by federal law in order to be promoted to this safety-sensitive position.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION AND PAY THE APPLICATION FEE

If you believe you meet the requirements in the “Eligibility to Take Examination” section, submit an application online by the last day of the application period unless you are requesting a Fee Waiver. Applicants who wish to request a Fee Waiver should refer to the “How to Submit an Application When Requesting a Fee Waiver” section below.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. You should refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (“DCAS”) General Exam Regulations to determine if you are entitled to a refund prior to requesting a refund. You can refer to the bottom of the last page of the Notice of Examination for instructions on how to obtain a copy of the DCAS General Exam Regulations.

Online Applications:

1. Apply using the “BSC” employee portal at www.mymta.info by the last day of the Application period.
2. You must pay the Application fee via payroll deduction. Applicants who request a fee waiver must apply by mail.
3. You will be sent a confirmation email after you complete your Application and pay the application fee.

Save your confirmation email for future reference and proof of filing an Application.

Computers with internet access are available on a limited basis at branches of the New York Public Library, the Brooklyn Public Library and the Queens Library to patrons with a valid library card.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION WHEN REQUESTING A FEE WAIVER

Applicants who wish to request a Fee Waiver must obtain an Application in person at the MTA Exam Information Center as indicated below and must submit the Application by mail to the address in the Correspondence section below by the last day of the application period.

MTA New York City Transit will not accept applications in person. Additional information on requesting an application fee waiver is available with the Application.

MTA Exam Information Center: Open Monday through Friday, from 9 AM to 3 PM, in the lobby at 180 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York. Directions: take the A, C, F, or R trains to the Jay Street-Metro Tech Station, or the 2, 3, or G train to the Hoyt Street Station.

ADMISSION LETTER

An Admission Letter will be mailed to you about 10 days before the first date of the multiple-choice test. If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before this date, you may obtain a duplicate letter at the MTA Exam Information Center (as indicated above). A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

Employees must keep their official mailing address up to date. Only the address on file with the MTA Business Service Center will be used to mail correspondence, including the Admission Letter.

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive multiple-choice test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass the multiple-choice test. Your score on this test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the multiple-choice test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus ½ point for each three months of completed, permanent continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services in competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the date of the multiple-choice test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application, but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The multiple-choice test may include questions on: safe and proper methods of installing, maintaining, troubleshooting, repairing and testing power, communication, fiber-optic, battery, control and telephone cable systems and related equipment; MTA New York City Transit rules, regulations, bulletins, policies and procedures; reading and interpreting drawings and schematics; MTA New York City Transit Flagging rules and procedures; and other related areas.

TEST ADMINISTRATION GUIDELINES

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however they must be hand-held, battery or solar-powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard, word processing, or data recording capabilities, such as planners, organizers, etc., are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during, or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded

Proof of Identity: You must present your MTA New York City Transit employee ID when you arrive to take each test.

THE TEST RESULTS

If you pass the multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.
